

Rabbit Creek Ride Journal

Sunday, February 14, 2010

Ride Leader: Carl Bloomquist

Story: Carl Bloomquist

This trip was originally planned for the Jump Creek area, but it rained the week before. The area was too muddy for most people to consider it fun, plus we did not want to destroy the trails. The fearless leader did some last minute changes on the day before and for-—formulated an alternate plan—which was a ride to a sandier area near Murphy. The group departed the Rabbit Creek trail-head Sunday morning and rode the sand washes and the desert between highway 78 and the foothills. It was a good day for a ride, a bit windy, but when we were down in the sand washes it was not too bad. We even got to check out some new (to us) trails. We rode just over 30 miles and returned back to the trucks about 2:30 p.m. Some of the guys decided they did not have enough riding and deciding to ride some more trails. We had some new people with us that day and they seemed to really enjoy it.