

Dodson Pass Ride Journal

Saturday, March 20, 2010

Ride Leader: Ray Ingram

Story: Haden Claiborne

The gathering place.

Approximately 40 riders from throughout the Treasure Valley clubs, and including ISATVA President

Clark Collins and his wife, Rita, joined forces for a great ride in the Dodson Pass area. The ride was hosted by the Emmett Club. The weather was great and all had a fun ride. There were no casualties—everyone made it home by their own power. Clark's wife, Rita, hit a sand bar halfway through one of the creek crossings and wheeled the rest of the way across. Many had difficulty with some mud bars as well, but all persevered.

Mike D. crossing the river!

MUD LOOKS FUN